and intermarried families. Aside from our duty and the gratitude we owe our Creator, to whom do we owe our Existence?

Is it not to our Ancestors, through whom God in his infinite wisdom has given birth and life? It is wrong for us to say we do not care for our Ancestors.

Besides giving us being, they have given us good government, churches, schools and colleges, and laid the foundation for the many blessings we now enjoy.

They lived through one of the most remarkable, and in many respects, the most wonderful epochs in the world's history.

Therewill never be another one like it, for it embraced a period when the strong armed homesækkers from Eastern States invaded the wilderness of the middle West and redeemed this splendid section of this great country from the wilds bringing it up through various stages to it's present high state of cultivation and civilization.

Let us, then, keep up our family record with pride and reverance, read the first seventeen verses of the first chapter of Mathew, and you will readily see that our forefathers in an early day kept a better family record than we are keeping.

Lastly I desore to hereby to express my earnest gratitude to all those who assisted me. and take great pleasure in acknowledgeing my indebtedness to different ones for their courteous responses to many requests in furnishing names dates or information for the completion of this booklet.

With love and respect for all mykinsfolk and friends, I am

The McKinseys who are now living, as well as those who formerly lived in Clinton County, Boone and Montgomery Counties, are descendents of one George W. McKinsey who was born in Scotland, March 26,1752--died June 11, 1840. He came to the United States with his parents in the year of 1753.

He served his country through the Revolutionary war until he was taken prisoner by Lord Cornwallis. After his release he re-enlisted in the army, completing a total of 7 years served. At the conclusion of that war he settled in South Carolina. He married his first wife Sarah(maiden name unknown). This was about 1784.

By the first W.S. Census(1790) he wasresiding in what is now Newberry County, South Carolina when his family consisted of 2 free white males over 16; 3 free white males under 16; and 4 white females. In 1802 he resided near the mouth of the Bush River about ten miles south of the present city of Newberry, South Carolina.

His neighbors were Dunkards and Quakers, but he does not seem to have been a member of either. His name is not recorded on the minutes of the Bush River(Newberry, Co. S.Car.) or of the Miami(Warren Co.Ohio) monthly meetings. Early in 1800's the Quakers of Newberry county, S. Car. purchased a large tract of land in Warren Co., Ohio embracing the present town of Waynesville, Ohio and most of them emigrated here. He followed their example in 1807.

He married his second wife, Mary at Whitewater ,INdiana about 1810, taking her back to Waynesville, Ohio via horseback. They first rented land Northeast of the little village of Waynesville for a short time and later got possesion of three hundred acres Southeast of said village, improved it with a good substantial log house and barn.

The little Miami River joined the West line. This land was mostly a forest in that early day, with but few acres available for immediate cultivation.

He died J ne 11,1840, and is buried in Hicksite Quaker Graveyard, in

CHAPTER VI

We now come to the fourth son an sixth child of George and Sarah McKinsey. His name is Nehemiah McKinsey(My grandfather- Martha McKinsey Wallace). He was born in South Carolina March,1,1795 and when a lad of thirteen years, he came with his father (George) and his brothers and sisters to Waynesville Ohio(Warren County). His mother died while living in South Carolina. They came through Cincinnati when it was very sparsely settled with a few log houses. His father bought a farm from the Government with the signature of Martin Van Buren, eighth president of the United States, signed to the deed.

Nehemiah lived with his father George on the farm until he grew to young manhood. He enlisted in Dayton Ohio and served as a private in Captin Francis Cunningham's Co. of Ohio Militia, in the War of 1812. He enlisted July 5,1814. In April 1855, at which time he was living in Jackson Township, Clinton County, Indiana. (Tgot this from the Bureau of P Pensbons, Department of the Interior, January 31,1930, while Earl D. Church was Commissioner). He was allowed one hundred and sixty acres of bounty land on Warrant No. 10712. He applied to Andrew Jackson, President. (I have the deed with Andrew Jackson's signature). After he was mustered out of the war at Waynesville, he was united in marriage to Catherine Elliott, March 28,1816. She was the daughter of Abram and Rachel Elliott. The same year they came to Indiana Territory, Indiana was admitted to the Union as a State. They settled on the Wabash River near Vincennes.

In 1822 they moved to Montgomery County when it was but a wilderness and settled on Sugar Creek, about seven miles for where Crawfordsville now stands. He entered eighty acres of Government land and a portion of the money($100.00)in payment of this land he raised by digging and selling ginseng. In 1828 they moved to Boone County, and settled at Thorntown, which was an Indianavillage at that time.

In 1830, the year Clinton County was chartered, they moved to Clinton County and entered a half section of land in Jackson Township. The deed to this land was signed by Andrew Jackson, seventh President of the United States. They built a logicabin in the woods, then later a brick house, three miles southeast of Frankfort. The old brick house that was built in 1857 still stands on the North side of the Kirklin brick road, just West of the College Corner school house. (School house now torn down). Frankfort was not yet located when they moved there. To them were born the following children, eight sons and one daughter:

Trban and his wife lived with his father during the summer and in the fall his father, Nehemiah and her father, John Shoemaker, entered 160 acres of land from the Government, paying ($1.25) one dollar and a quarter an acre for it. During the World War, the same land sold for ($400.00 four hundred dollars an acre.) It was up in what they calked Indian Reserve.

That fall when the crop was laid by, Urban went up and built a log house in the green woods on the new farm. In fact, that was all the kind of houses that were built in the country, eighty five years ago. After corn husking, Urban took two loads of corn up and put in the log cabin. On the first day of January, 1846, they spread their bedding on the corn and slept on it that first night. A big snow came during the night and as the cabin was neither daubed or chinked, the snow blew through the cracks. Consequently, on awakening in the morning, they found themselves covered with show to a depth of six inches. This was their first experience in housekeeping and I will venture to say our dear Mother never forgot that night's experience while she lived.

Urban cleared about three acres of land and had in ready to plant corn. He furrowed out the ground, Indiana dropped the corn and Harrison Hodgen covered it with a hoe. This was number one land, but a disease known as "milk sick" made its appearance and several of the neighbors died with it. On June 29th, 1846, their first child was born. A son named Wakemiah Shoemaker, for his two grandfathers. On account of "milk sick" being so fatal, Indiana's father moved them to a small house on his farm, one half mile from the house where she was married. They rented and lived on different farms until in 1853, when "rban bought what is now know as the Kissinger farm. He sold it in the fall of 1855 and bought what is known as the Betsy Spray farm and in the spring of 1856, he built a frame house with a front and back stairway. All the woodwork wasof black walnut, which was very nice for those days. This was our homeeuntil in June 14th, 1880, it was very much damaged by a cyclone and had to be rebuilt. We children

The McKinseys have become noted for their patriotism and loyalty to their Government.

Greece is noted for simplicity, beauty, and seekers for truth.

Romans were makers of laws.

Hebrews for righteousness.

The Scotch people were noted for their loyalty to their Clan.

This clannish system endured long. They were made up of Scots, Picts, Angles and Northmen. All added their stock to the make-up of the modern Scot and he is a better man for the blending.

They had a hard struggle to conquer a stubborn land, hence their instinct for thrift, which has afforded abundant material for many a jest. If a shilling be hard won, it is less apt to be thoughtlessly spent.

In our own country, Princeton and Dartsmouth bear witness to the love of learning, which the Scot manifested in the New World as well as in the old. It may be added that it has been characteristic of the Scottish Universities that they have ever insisted upon a rigid discipline of study.

What a world it is we are led into, in the study of this Scottish people. What a glamour of romance surrounds the figures of Wallace of the Bruce, of ueen Mary and of Bonnie Prince Charlie.

The McKinseys, Mackenzies, were one of the most noted clans there.

Aberdeen Scotland, They had their own dress, bagpipes, crest, etc. They have become noted in theis country for their patriotism to the Government.

Great-grandfather George McKinsey served in the Revolutionary War for seven years. He was taken prisoner by Lord Cornwallis and after his release, he re-enlisted in the army.
